Sales Specialist · Kaufland

October 2020 - November 2020 · 2 months

It supposed to be a 1 year long internship, in order to develop enough knowledge and skills to take over the position of an assistant of a store director or even his place. Unfortunately, the role didn't meet my standards, as I felt that at that particular age I should have a little bit more variety in the usage and development of my abilities, and lack of dynamics in the workflow that went along with a slumbering routine made me deny the continuation of my internship and a find a more dynamic place for my career development.
